TBVC THROUGH THE YEARS

1989

1987

January 8 – CC's 10th birthday party.

Betty Anderson's foundation bitch, and the first vizsla bitch to go Best in Show, was BIS BISS CH Firebrand's Constant Comment ROM HOF. She was the party gal at all our events.

1988

Cadbury – June 1988. Betty Anderson presented the first vizsla bitch to the Southeastern Guide Dog School in Sarasota. She was bred and Cadbury was the first of her pups to graduate. He is shown here with his new owner (center) with Betty and her husband Don.

TBVC contingent has fun at the VCA Nationals in 1988. Shown here are Marlene Chumbook, Starr Schultheis, and Betty Anderson.

1991

The club held yard sales to raise money. This was from the 2nd yard sale held at Carol Carozza's in Brandon (she is now married to Daniel Burjan and lives in NJ.) Pictured is Marlene Chumbook with Carol's dog, Murphy.

1992

Our first specialty was held in January 1992 in conjunction with the Manatee Kennel Club show. There was a competition for the best breed booth and our club won that year. Marlene is shown receiving the check for $25.

Billy Lyons and Cutter at the first specialty.

1993

Our August fun day was held on August 8, 1993. Pictured are Jean Crossley, Karen Bowen (now Karen Hutto) and Del Vanek

The club held a B match on July 3. Pictured are Paul Gornoski, Betty Anderson, and D. J. Reichert.

(In 1996, we must've been too busy getting ready for the '97 Nationals to take any pictures!)

1997

This was the year we hosted the Nationals! Here, the work crew gets the welcome bags packed and ready (Lisa, Glen and Myrna)

1997

“Vizslaween” at the ‘97 Nationals will long be remembered as the best Halloween costume contest ever! This blushing bride prepares herself for a walk down the aisle.

Steve Tenenbom and Ida Kavafian, world renowned violinists, played the National Anthem at the commencement of the show event.

A job well done! Anne Denehy, Lisa Kenny, Betty Anderson, Myrna Widmer and Dan Kenny celebrate!

(In 1998, we must've been too tired from hosting the '97 Nationals to take any pictures!)

1999
